THE CRUSADER ARTIST HOLLY TILLEY

Our artist Holly Tilley was born in Ft. Worth, Texas but has lived and worked in Arkansas most of her life. She loves being outdoors and this is reflected in her love of Arkansas landscapes including favorites like Lake Ouachita, old barns and trucks. Another favorite is cows! She paints lots of them. Tilley has studied with Bill Garrison, Barry Thomas, Dreama-Tolle Perry, Guido Frick, Bruce Peil and John Lassater. "I love studying with others - you can continue to learn everyday -- looking, studying and slowly incorporating things you learn into your own style is so fun."

After a long career in marketing and advertising, she is pursuing another passion. Tilley is a member of the Art Group Arkansas. Tilley is also a member of the Arkansas League of Artists. She teaches art lessons individually and has taught for the Arkansas Baptist school of Fine Arts program.

She lives in Little Rock and manages the Art Group Gallery at Pleasant Ridge Town Center. Holly is married to Jim Tilley and they have two children, Christian and Hannah. "The artists I work with inspire me - it's so fun to do what you love."

THE MONARCH ARTIST PHILLIP CROWE

This beautiful, signed, Lion scene art print called "The Monarch" was commissioned exclusively for Mid-South Lions Sight and Hearing Service. The artist, Phillip Crowe, paints what he knows best: the outdoors and wildlife. As demand for his work grew, so did his range of subject matter. Crowe has dedicated his time and art to helping many organizations that care about the wildlife he loves. He has painted 35 state duck and conservation stamps and has donated approximately $4 million in art prints and originals to the organizations. "This environment is fragile; the balance is our responsibility, and we must protect our outdoors for our children and our future."
